

Invite Others During Advent

According to recent research about worship, families want to bring greater meaning to Christmas preparations. There is no better time to invite friends or family than the season of Advent (Sundays, Dec. 1, 8, 15, 22 and Christmas Eve.)

This year our Advent service will feature more Christmas music and sermons influenced by the Christmas Song “Do You Hear What I Hear?” This well known Christmas song was written as a plea for peace (and also a protest of the commercialization of Christmas) during the Cuban Missile Crisis.

In this time of political turmoil and a world that seems to be in chaos, we all need the “Peace on Earth, Good will to Men” that "God with us" Emmanuel promises to bring. Make sure you offer invitations to this important series.

Church Pews Slated for Removal

Soon the pews will be removed from the sanctuary as Family Promise begins renovations. If your family paid for a pew back when we enlarged the sanctuary you may come get it if you want it. We will let you know when you can that. If you would like to keep the brass plate you are invited to do so. however, we would like to take the brass plates and create a plaque for them to hang in the new building.

Please let us know asap if you want your pew.
