Invite Others During Advent

According to recent research, families want to bring greater meaning to Christmas preparations. There is no better time to invite friends or family than the season of Advent (remaining Sunday, Dec. 22 9 & 11:15AM and Christmas Eve 5:30PM.)

This year our Advent services feature more Christmas music and sermons influenced by the Song "Do You Hear What I Hear?" This beloved Christmas song was written as a plea for peace (and also a protest of the commercialization of Christmas) during the Cuban Missile Crisis.

In this time of political turmoil and a world that seems to be in chaos, we all need the "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men" that "God with us" Emmanuel promises to bring. Make sure you offer invitations to this important series.

Our Service to Others

Last week we had 5 people active in service to 183 individuals, including Alcoholics Anonymous, Narcotics Anonymous, home visits (Jill and Garry Glenn), Good News at Noon (Jim Prezel, David Sweet), and Northeast GA Medical Center (Margaret Chaffin).

Please note your service to others this past week on your communication card and place it in the offering plate.

Remember Church Staff at Christmas

The SPRC asks that you remember our McEver Road UMC staff in your thoughts and prayers during the Christmas season. A love offering is a wonderful way to show your appreciation and gratitude to the staff of our church.

If you would like to contribute toward a love offering, please simply indicate "Staff Love Offering" on your check or giving envelope and place it in the offering plate today or next Sunday, Dec. 22. Or, you may bring or mail it to the church office to arrive by Monday, Dec. 23rd

In his service,
SPRC

Food Pantry Needs

The South Hall Community Food Pantry is running low on dry pasta. So take a bag (provided near the doors in our worship space) & fill it with "12 1-pound Boxes of Pasta" & return it Christmas Eve (or Sunday, December 29). We are also low on spaghetti sauce, so if you're really in the giving mood, add some jars/cans of spaghetti sauce to the bags.

There's a little song, The 12 Days of Pasta, stapled to the bags to get you in the spirit.

Thank you for generosity in helping our neighbors in need.

I want to thank my church family for all of your support, your heartfelt thoughts and prayers, and the kindnesses you have shown me and my family. You were there for us in our time of need and I really appreciate it.

Love,
Susan Ward

Loving Christ Loving People Helping People Love Christ

Welcome! We're Glad You're Here!

We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, filthy rich, dirt poor. We extend a special welcome to those who are crying newborns, skinny as a rail or could afford to lose a few pounds.

We welcome you if you can sing like Andrea Bocelli or like our pastor who can't carry a note in a bucket. You're welcome here if you're "just browsing," just woke up or just got out of jail. We don't care if you're more Methodist than Asbury, or haven't been in church since little Joey's Baptism.

We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast. We welcome soccer moms, NASCAR dads, starving artists, latte-sippers, vegetarians, junk-food eaters.

We welcome those who are in recovery or still addicted. We welcome you if you're having problems or you're down in the dumps or if you don't like "organized religion;" we've been there too.

If you blew all your offering money at the dog track, you're welcome here. We offer a special welcome to those who think the earth is flat, work too hard, don't work, can't spell, or because grandma is in town and wanted to go to church.

We welcome those who are inked, pierced or both. We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down your throat as a kid or got lost in traffic and wound up here by mistake. We welcome tourists, seekers and doubters, bleeding hearts and you!
